

VCU Office of Research Film Series 2014 / 2015

A learning opportunity for faculty and staff interested in key topics and challenges in the field of Research Administration. Each video session will include lively and informative mediated discussions by a panel of experts. Along the way, we will break briefly to summarize and facilitate round table discussions. Lunch will be provided and program guides will be available. Come and enjoy meeting fellow administrators both on and off the screen!
